

Prof. (Dr.) Ram Chandra is an internationally acclaimed Scientist, Consultant, Manager and Academician innovator with vast experience in the area of higher academics and professional education. He has over 35 years of experience in international teaching, lecturing, Research, management and administration. He served as; Professor and Director, Board of Studies at Mewar University; Deputy Vice Chancellor for Cavendish University Zambia; Senior Regional Director at Indira Gandhi National Open University; Director Centre of Energy Studies and Research, Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore; Senior Scientific Officer at Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi; currently serving as Vice Chancellor of Monad University.

Development of Academic Programmes/Books

Prof. (Dr.) Ram Chandra has developed and edited several academic programmes. He edited more than 300 technical books for Mewar University, developed and launched more than 15 new programmes at Cavendish University. He has edited ten (10) WABAMP professional study texts and he is a professional Council Member of World Association for Business Administration and Management Professionals WABAMP. Prof. (Dr.) Ram Chandra has edited fifteen (15) study texts for Cavendish University Zambia.

Research and Development

Prof. Ram Chandra has published several books titled: "Teaching and Learning Skills in Higher Education", "Teaching & Learning Skills in University System", "Open and Distance Education Systems: New Vistas in Higher Education", "Advances in the Energy Auditing and Conservation", "Renewable Energy Technology and its Implementation in India", "Quality Education in Higher Education: Creditization, Examination, Evaluation and Certification" , "Innovation in Examination and Evaluation in Universities", "University Education: Teaching and Learning Skills: How Students Think? ", "A Study of Dropout of Students in Master Programmes", "Project Evaluation Measures for Quality Assurance in India", "Dropout of Students in Undergraduate and Master Programmes".

Collaborative Experience

While serving as Director, Board of Studies at Mewar University, Prof. Ram Chandra interacted with various Govt. organizations for the collaboration for the training programmes. As a result, Mewar University can send more than two thousand students for training under different programmes. Prof. Ram Chandra also helped in signing MoU with Cavendish University Zambia for multi activities like faculty and students exchange, collaborative joint programmes, training programmes etc.